Dear Ms. Borders:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2016-000315) submitted on January 5, 2016, in which you requested "GSA Security Contract (June 2013-Sept 2015, Now expired) GS08T13BPC00001, Solicitation/task order ID08130016."

Enclosed please find the documents responsive to your request. In processing your request, GSA is withholding the proposal pursuant to the Fourth Statutory Exemption of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), which permits an agency to protect matters that are Trade Secrets and Commercial or Financial Information obtained from a person that are privileged or confidential in nature.

We also withheld signatures in accordance with the Sixth Statutory Exemption under the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), which permits an agency to withhold personal and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Additionally, we withheld maps and photographs of entry control points in accordance with the Seventh Statutory Exemption under the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(F), which permits an agency to withhold information which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.

Based on the above information, this constitutes a partial denial of your request. You have the right to appeal this partial denial of records under FOIA. If you wish to appeal, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to;

Your appeal must be in writing, reference the control number assigned, and contain a brief statement of the reasons why the requested information should be released. Enclose a copy of the original request, the response to your request, and why the denial of the records was in error. The submission is not complete without the required attachments.
